There were fans-the-more in '84, and excitement to match on both sides of the football field. Students and adults watched the Cavaliers and Incas on Friday nights throughout the season.

The Cavaliers, the Cavalettes and the Marching Band provided the kind of sparkle that will make '85, alive!

The sophomore squad carved a perfect 7-0 record for the 1984 season. Here's the way things shaped up:

1. This year's NCIC championship was in contention until the final conference match. L-P Inca gridders turned back previously undefeated Geneseo, 13-8, to ice the crown.

2. In its season closer, the Incas headed west to upset undefeated East Moline, Western Big 6 conference champs, 34-29, to preserve its own perfect record.

3. The sophomore squad, manned by members of the 1983 L-P Aztecs, continued a string of 14 wins. As freshmen, they had posted an identical 7-0 schedule.

L-P Varsity Basketball

The 1984-85 varsity basketball team met a difficult challenge, head-on. The youthful Cavaliers regrouped around one returning starter, and completed another winning season.

They roared through the first-nine games without a loss, claimed championship of the Streator Thanksgiving tournament and made their presence known in the conference by knocking-off two NCIC pre-season favorites — Sterling and Rock Falls.

Other season notes: 1) Vince Kasperski was named Most Valuable Player at the Streator tourney, and to the All-Tournament Team at Richwoods.

2) The loss of starting forward Jim Bacidore with an injury slowed the quintet, but a full-court-pressure-defense claimed non-conference victories over East Moline, Chicago Lakeview, IVC and the rival St. Bede Bruins, both at home and away.

3) Individual Stats. Vince Kasperski joined the Thousand Point Club with a three-year total of 1,013, and moved to No. 8 on L-P's all-time scoring list. In addition, Vince was a First Team, unanimous choice, on the NCIC All-Conference Team.

Teammate John Happ was a Second Team selection, and Paul Suarez earned Honorable Mention status.

Christmastime saw a turn-around for the sophomores.

Following a slow-start in November, the team caught holiday fire and quickly became an NCIC threat to be reckoned-with. Strong team-play and tenacious defense proved to be a great present for third-year sophomore Coach Paul Kramarsic.

L-P's Inca cagers wound up their regular season with a share of the NCIC crown. Terrific!

L-P's Gymnastics Club is seldom up-in-the-air about its "mission." Under the direction of veteran gymnast Tony Causa, the group trains diligently on two fronts, with a variety of equipment — horses, tramps, the unevens, rings — sharpening individual acrobatic and gymnastic skills. The mats are its playground.

The club plays in other ways, too. It presents halftime shows during the basketball season, watches the "pros" perform, holds Bake Sales in the Mall, takes part in competitions, and generally spreads the word of high school gymnastics in the area.

INTRAMURALS — EVERY MONDAY

They get together, hundreds of L-P students, mostly in the girls gym, for fun-n-games on Monday evenings throughout the school year. Lots of intramural team rivalry and recognition for the winners.

Students keep scores and stats. Among the Intramural Board members, who do so, are, "down here," Karla Anderson and Missy Olsen; and, "up there," Julie Blomquist and Stephanie Burdon.

RIGHT: Mr. Burdon, Intramurals director, and Coaches Carls and Panizzi, who whistle the league basketball games on a pair of courts.

They sharpen their skills twice weekly with a Quiz-Control Machine, and whet their wits whenever they can, on-their-own. This is preparation for at least six Scholastic Team contests at statewide sites — Wenona, Bradley-Bourbonnais, St. Bede, Streator, Kewanee Wethersfield. LEFT: This L-P team — members compete regularly for team berths — won the Streator Round-Robin tourney. Seated, Julie Smith and Ms. Verplaetse, coach, Scholastic Team. Standing, Jay Eick, Andy Decker, Paul Negri, Brian Jaskolski, Mike Borio, Annette Suarez.

Freshman students were added to the Scholastic Team brain-trust this season — a successful one!

D.A. for a DAY

Seventeen L-P students were "elected" to La Salle County offices and to the Board of Supervisers by members of U.S. History and American Government classes in a mock election Nov. 6, 1984.

L-P's Chess Club participates in 15 dual and invitational tournaments every year. This year, the State Chess Tournament in Rock Island, too.

Members include top boards Jim Filippi and Jim Callahan, Mike Dawson, Jay Eick, Dan Matthews, Tony Anderson, Brian Boedigheimer, Stepan Sahagian, Scott Oglesby, Kurt McMahon, Maria Burkhart. The Chess Club is sponsored by Mr. Pappas, a Master director.

Presidential candidate, Geraldine Ferraro the first woman Vice

Another political story came in third: the nomination of Geraldine Ferraro for vice president, the first woman so selected by a major party.

Other stories in the top ten dealt with death and disaster. The poison gas leak from a Union Carbide plant in Bhopal, India, which killed more than 2,000 people, placed second.

The list:

1. The Reagan landslide.
2. The Bhopal disaster.
3. Ferraro's challenge.
4. Indira Gandhi's assassination.
5. The bombing of the U.S. embassy annex in Beirut.
6. The Ethiopian famine.

Landslide re-elects Reagan

Four more years

Not until the last vote was counted did Gary Peterlin breath easy. It was that close.

The Oglesby Republican won a second term as La Salle County state's attorney over Democratic challenger John Balestri of La Salle by 496 votes.

L-P students picked Reagan, Percy, McGrath

Nearly 350 U.S. History and American Government students of La Salle-Peru High School, who held a mock-election Tuesday for nine La Salle County offices and eight board seats, straw-voted for principal national, state and congressional district races.

Results:

President/Vice-President

Reagan/Bush 204, Mondale/Ferraro 121

U.S. Senator

Charles Percy 211, Paul Simon 117

Representative, 14th District

John Grotberg 138, Dan McGrath 187

Forty-nine L-P students originally entered the race, campaigned for La Salle County offices and board seats, and held a primary election Oct. 24.

The mock election program, sponsored jointly by Barbara Wysocki, chairman, La Salle-Peru social science department, and Regional Superintendent of Schools Dr. Joe L. Mini, places emphasis on the range and significance of La Salle County elective offices.

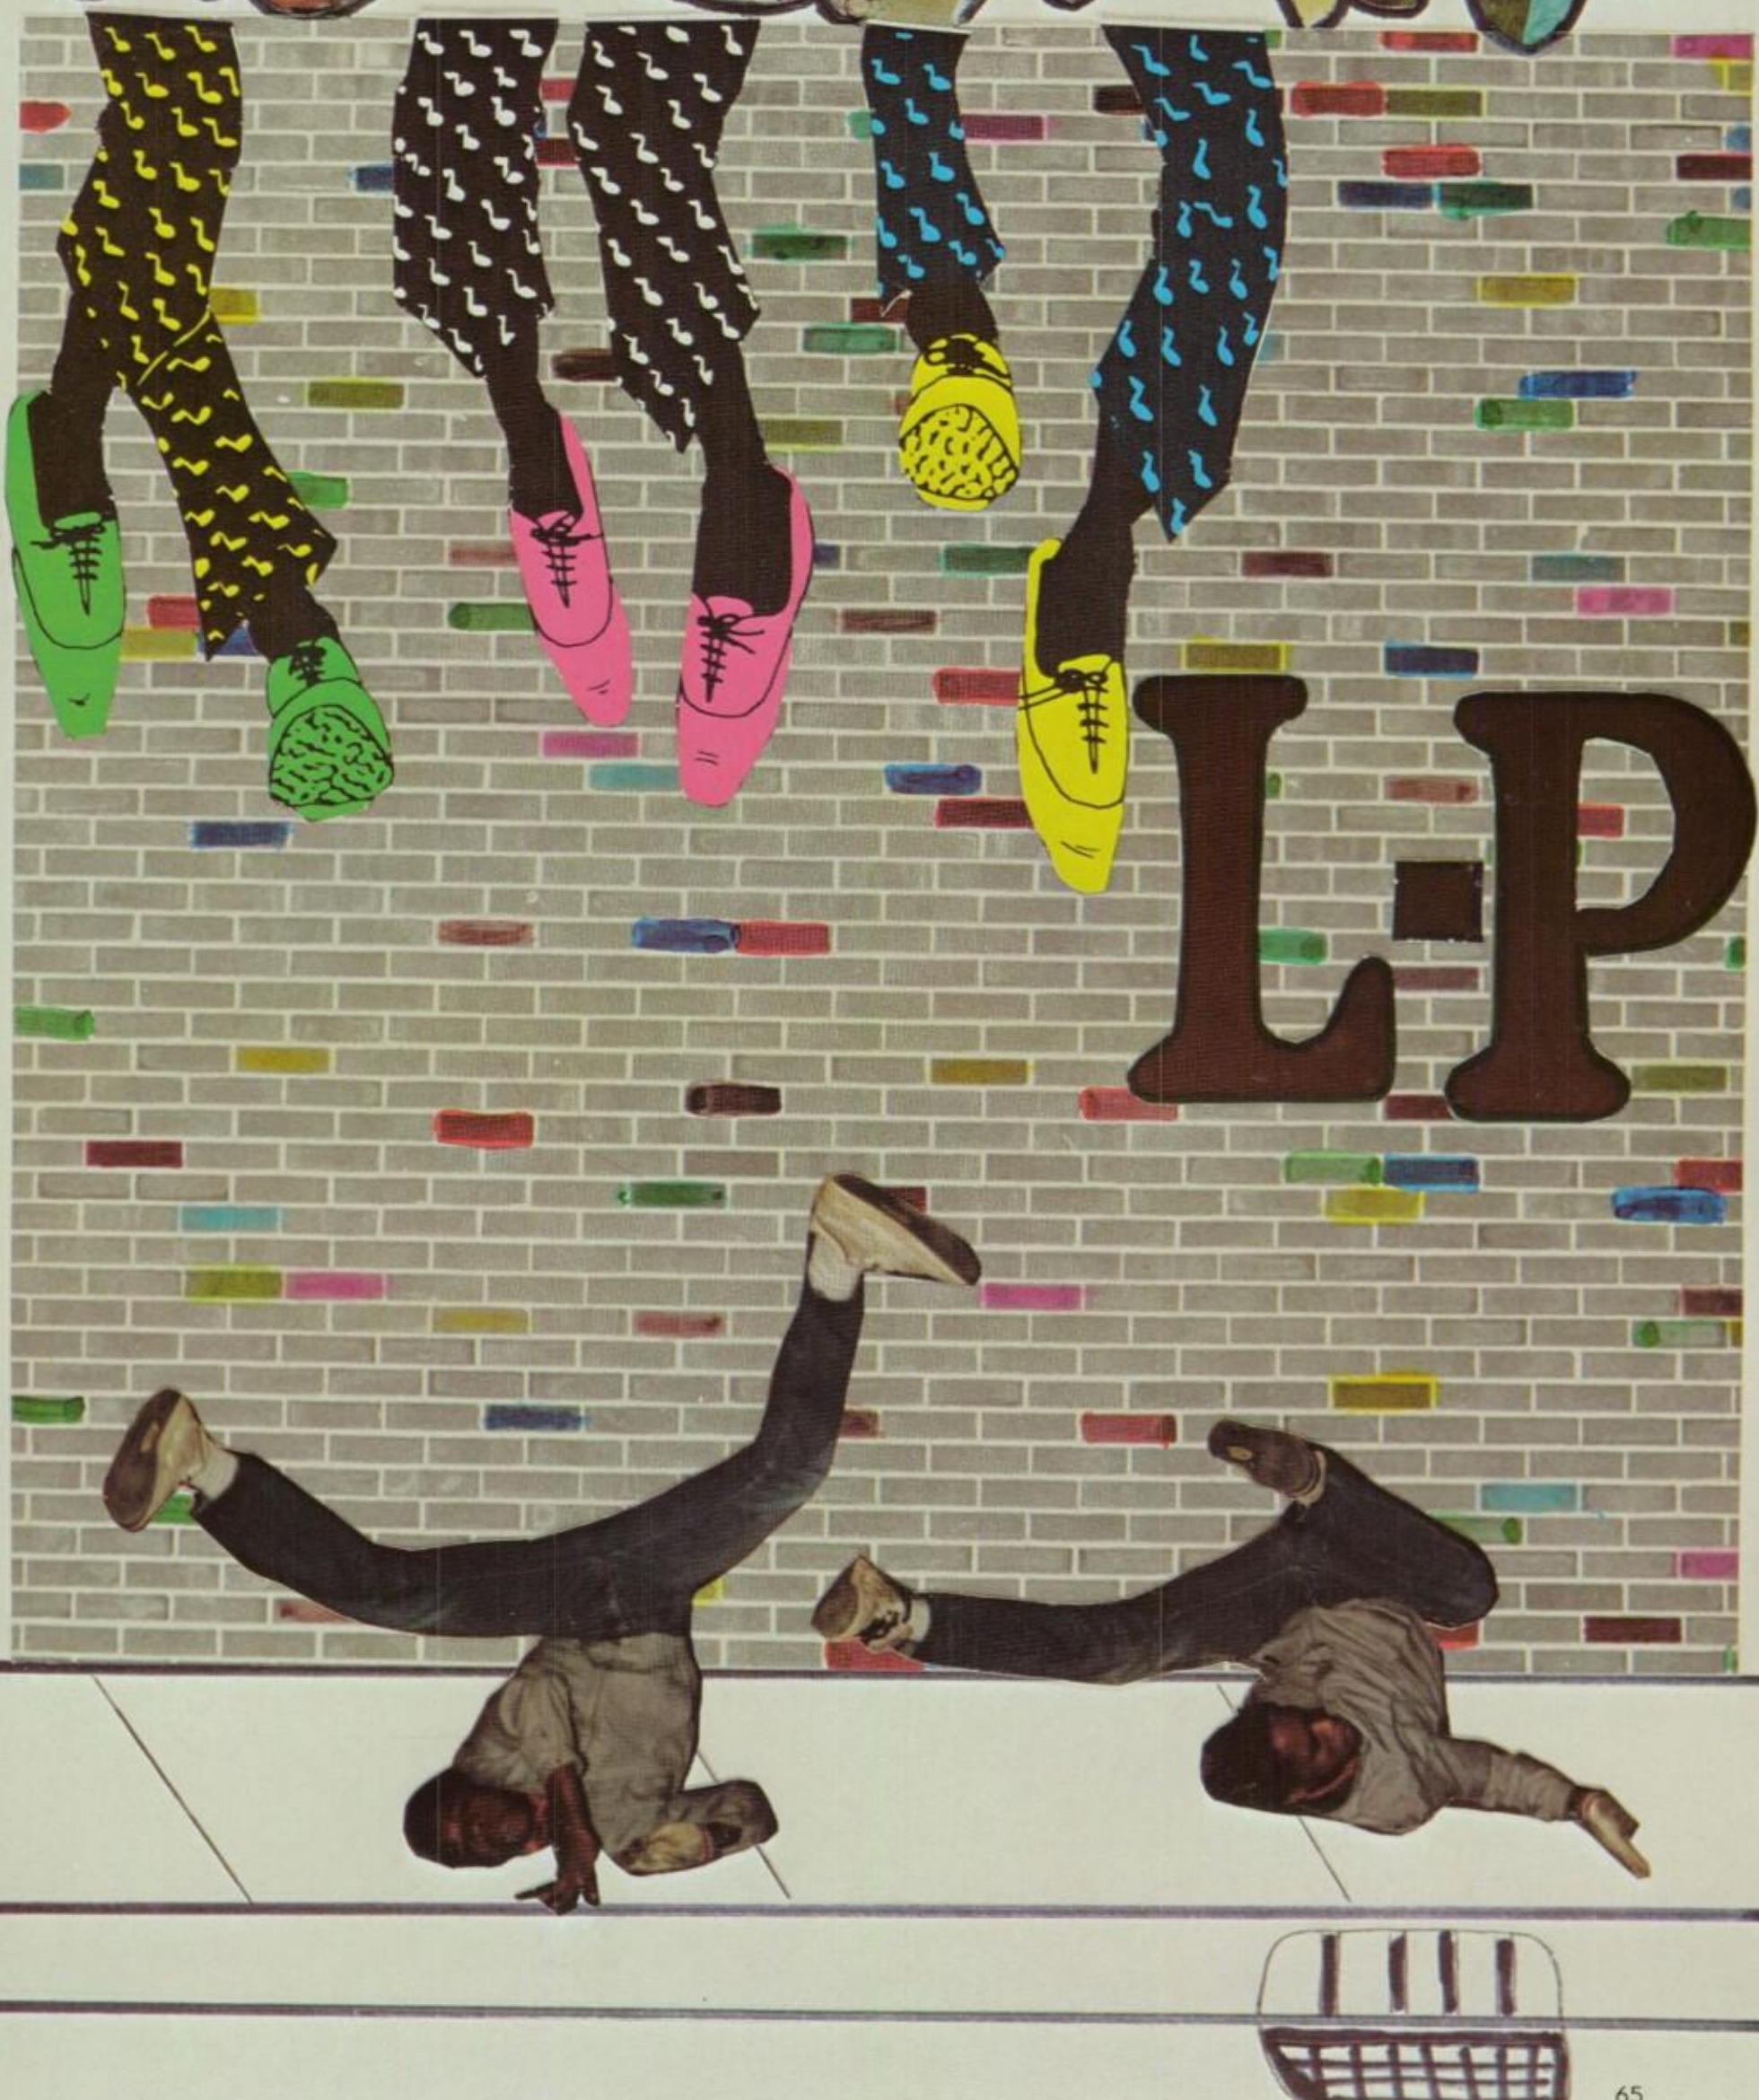
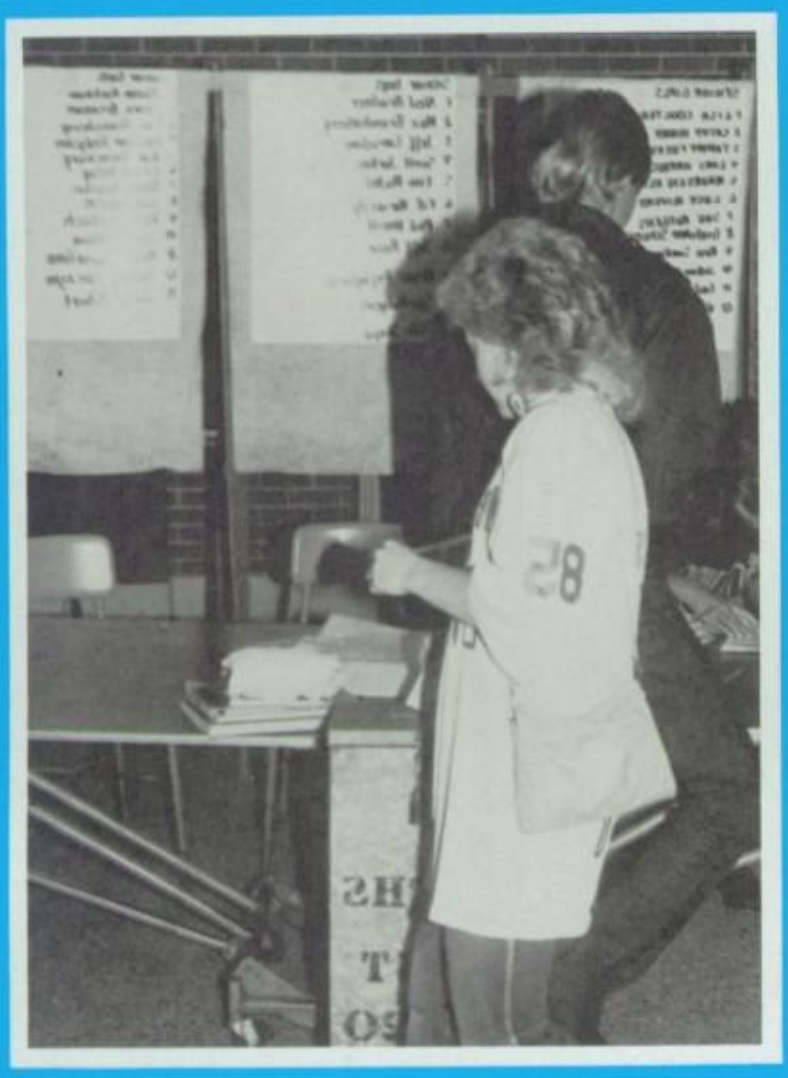
HOMECOMING



L-P Homecoming began breakin-out in fun



L-P Homecoming was at its peak with Spirit Days which grew all week. Its Variety Show was a great time, and the Parade was in its prime. Election of the K&Q was tense, putting candidates in suspense. We all wondered which boy and girl would win. It just so happened each was a twin. The Incas and Cavs beat Streator Friday night as both squads put on a masterful fight. The Homecoming Dance in the gym turned out a blast . . .

All these are memories, built to last.

Rehearsal-calls for H.S. talent show

"Let's try it again! A little brighter this time," said Variety Show directors Jane Ousec and Bob Gemeny to MC's Gretchen Schaede and Sarah Chamlin.

Heavy rehearsal sessions were the pattern for 13 student acts set for the Homecoming talent show. Its sharpness at mid-week showed.

The '84 Parade was a streamlined, energy-efficient display, designed to project greater school spirit, involve more L-P students, and fire-up the Cavs. It became a real Homecoming Pep Caravan!

Isn't this, what-it's-all-about?

When the Homecoming frou-frou gets down to one thing: a resounding cheer for the Cavs?

From the assembly in the gym at 2:10 p.m. until the final gun of the second-game in the stadium at about 10:15 p.m., it was a Pep Rally. A successful one, too. A double-win Friday night.

Hand-made, dressed, named with lots of loving care for deserving young "mothers"

Here's the way L-P Cabbage-Patch look-alikes were born around Christmas, '84:

1. Mr. Rogers, dean, was the originator and prime-mover of the project to distribute the much-sought-after dolls to deserving young ladies in our area.
2. Heads, bodies and stuffing material for 24 "Doll Babies" were purchased by freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes.
3. Seven of Mrs. Santa's best helpers among the L-P faculty-and-staff stuffed and sewed the dolls.
4. Each was clothed in infant dress, and a traveling outfit, by members of Mrs. Zehr's Home Ec classes. The L-P student-body donated the fancy clothes.
5. The dolls were "dressed" by the Child Growth and Development classes, ready for adoption.
6. Each was named and provided with a birth certificate by Mr. Rogers.

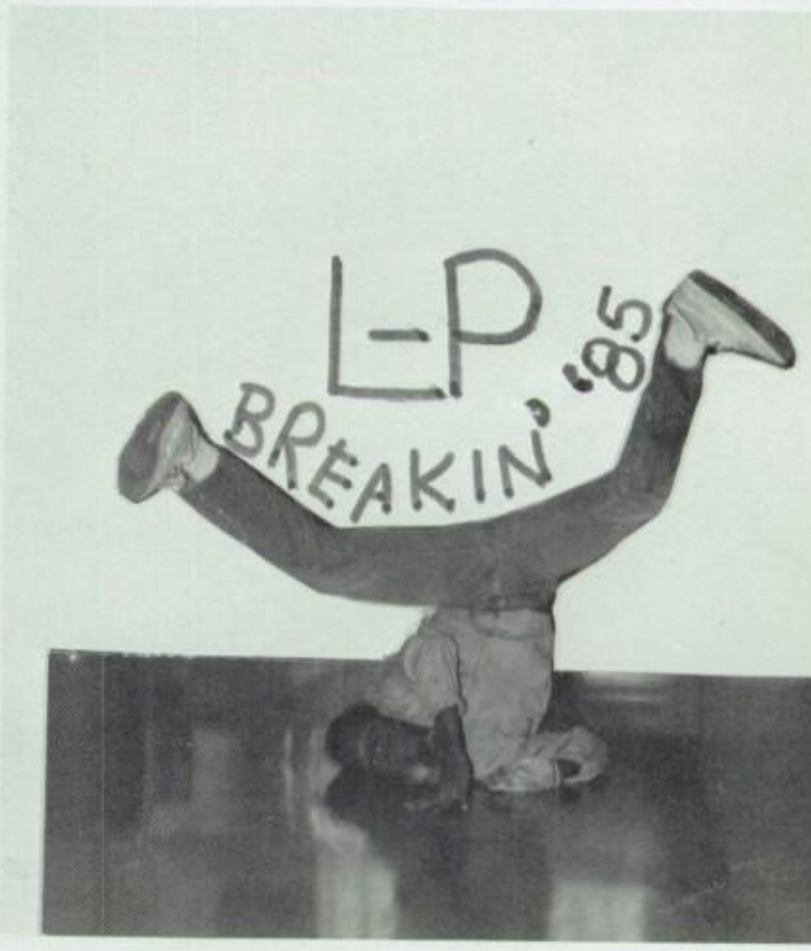
A new dance fad, with "moves" like shifting sand



BREAKIN' broke out at L-P in the '84-'85 school year, and it became big business across the nation. Three films (BEAT STREET, BREAKIN' and BODY ROCK) glorified the hip-hop culture while a variety of merchandise flooded the market, including how-to books and instruction stories in CAVAL-CURRENTS, videos and authentic fashions.

Even freshmen could master the King Tut, Moon-walk and Electric Boogie without mussing their jeans on the smooth, slick floor of the west gym and glossy-waxed L-P corridors.

OKLAHOMA!

Matthiessen
Auditorium
March 28-30, 1985

"Oklahoma!", one of the most popular musical shows in American theatrical history, was presented by the Advanced Chorus before standing-room-only audiences.

Cast and chorus members were named in January by directors Robert Manahan and Timothy Haskett. Daily rehearsals continued through late March.

Speaking/singing roles included Joe Harzheim (Curley); Michelle Ruggerio (his girlfriend, Laurie); Cathy Denny (Ado Annie); Jerry Phlippeau (her suitor, Will Parker); Gretchen Schaede (Aunt Eller); Jim Faletti (Jud, the villain); and Andy Decker (Ali Hakim, the Persian peddler).

Terrific performances of a great musical!

The Band a-Marchin'

On-the-March for School and Community

The Marching Cavaliers perform on city streets, alongside interstate highways, at riverfront locations and on football and drill fields — for dedications, Homecoming and Christmas parades, for stadium halftime shows and the celebration of Little League baseball.

Its exciting sight-and-sound results from the combined talents and efforts of directors Stevens-Swain-Brown, several maneuver and "spectacle" specialists, and 75 well-trained student musicians.

L-P and the community loves its presence!

Everytime. Anytime.

A brand-new party treat with L-P's brand-new sound equipment — a ghost-bustin' first!
Students and teachers arrived in outlandish costumes and danced with "spirits" to the music of record-spinner Steve Burdon and d.j. Gretchen Schaede. Prizes for best-costumes.
Mr. Burdon and the Junior Board members created the Halloween Dance '84 — and it was a great one!

FIRST HALLOWEEN HOP: a whopping happening

International Banquet '85

A brand-new twist to an old favorite

a pre-Lenten fling, duplicating the frolic and feasting of foreign lands

Call it "Mardi Gras" this year, or "Fasching" or "Carnaval," L-P traditional International Banquet became a late-winter salute (it snowed-a-ton that Feb. 9th evening) to the kind of Old World merry-making and feasting, which preceded the 40-days of Lent.

Members of the French, German and Spanish Clubs, dressed in fancy-costumes and masks, were participants, rather than spectators, in the pre-Lenten spectacles of foreign nations.

They paraded behind their reigning revelers — Roi Carnaval, Prince Karneval, King Momo — dancing across the gym floor in Congaline fashion. They "buried" the sullen "Mal Humor" and let the final outburst of gaiety begin. Each club proclaimed its King-n-Queen. Each named its costume winners and shared in unique prizes. It was a pre-Lenten bash!

Of course, there was full-feasting, before the Fast, from buffet tables laden with ethnic foods from hors d'oeuvres to crepes, knachtwurst to kuchen, tacos to pasteles — brought as covered dishes.

. . . a Festival to be enjoyed and remembered!
